since the beginning of 2nd half of 20th century various critical theories came into existence and every student and teacher of literature was influenced by those theories which were basically addressing the demands of other social sciences but theoretical schools of western part of the world also inspired colonial and postcolonial reimagining the present book employs many of those theories without being obscure or ambiguous the book gets a wider value because the writer expresses his views reviews interviews and critical essays which are theory oriented an extra value of the book is that author here also plays the role of a translator and last but not the least the robust language plays a great job here and the domain is world literature
